

Mythology lessons for students in Korum mall

THANE: The Korum mall in Thane has tied up with the Amar Chitra Katha publishers to recreate the mythological stories this Diwali. Artistes will perform a few stories from Ramayana to explain the importance of Diwali to children. The décor of the mall will be in tune with the stories. The mall will also hold workshops on story-telling and puppetry. Special puppet shows, meets with Amar Chitra Katha characters and Heroes Parade which will include characters such as Ram, Sita, Shakuntala, Dushyant, Shivaji, Akbar, Birbal and Rani of Jhansi will also be held. The story-telling event will begin on Saturday and will continue till November 3.
