With malls vying for customers' attention for festive shopping, Korum Mall in Thane is out with a unique carnival theme for shoppers. With carnival-themed décor, exciting promotional offers, engagement activities and entertaining performances by international acrobatic dancers, shoppers are in for a grand Diwali fête.

Last weekend, the Diwali Carnival took off with a performance by Ayushmann Khuranna who sang some of his best songs including his latest single Mitti Di Khushbu. After that was a fashion show that showcased the trendy festive collection available at the mall, which had Anchal Kumar as its show stopper.

Following this, in the days leading up to Diwali, there are several events lined up. A carnival parade through

Thane will be held on October 18, a special pyro fireworks act will be there on October 19 and an African Acrobatic Dance will be performed on October 26 along with the daily entertainment of jugglers, jesters, stilt walkers, fire-eaters, tarot card readers and balloon artists will create a fiesta-like atmosphere at the mall.

Korum Mall will also hold fun-filled workshops for kids and teach them how to make carousel lanterns, creative bookmarks, decorative masks, funky caps and lots more. The mall is also giving its customers a chance to win lots of goodies and a sedan as the grand prize. Over the last five years, the mall, with over 125 brands under its roof, is the key lifestyle shopping destination for people living in Thane and the central suburbs of Mumbai.
