THANE: Commercial establishments in Thane have also joined the drive to keep city schools clean, as part of the Swachh Bharat Abhiyaan.

Korum mall, in association with the Thane Municipal Corporation (TMC), has initiated a cleanliness drive in civic schools. On Friday, 50 employees of the mall participated in cleaning up the premises of TMC's school no 13, in Khopat.

"This drive has started from Children's day, but will not end today. The Korum team has pledged to dedicate 100 hours to this drive till October 2015. Every month, our team will come here and carry forward the Swachh Bharat Abhiyaan," said Deva Jyotula, general manager, Korum mall.
